

Introduction to Net Zero

‘The biggest threat to our planet is the belief that someone else will save it’

ROBERT SWAN

Course Overview

This course offers a comprehensive exploration into one of the most pressing challenges and opportunities of our time in achieving a sustainable and equitable future. Designed for organizations, professionals and individuals committed to fostering global sustainability, this interactive e-learning experience provides the foundational principles and critical significance of Net Zero.

Learning Outcomes

1

Develop an understanding of the Net Zero concept and its global significance.

2

Differentiate between Net Zero and Carbon Neutrality to understand their respective implications.

3

Explore the scientific and policy frameworks behind Net Zero, including its relationship to climate change.

4

Discuss carbon offsetting, carbon markets, and their effectiveness in meeting Net Zero targets.

5

Examine the strategic importance of Net Zero for corporations, investors, and policymakers.

6

Analyse the economic, environmental, and social implications of transitioning to Net Zero.

Introduction to Net Zero

COST

HRDC claimable

COURSE DURATION

2 hours - on demand 24 x 7

METHODOLOGY

Self-paced interactive online course

OUR CONTACT DETAILS

Nur Inspirasi Sdn Bhd (1184263-V)

E: sales@greenearth.finance

T: +6012 544 8918